Our ESG Challenge to you as a Supplier Partner

CBRE

Our goal is to create a culture and pathway of practices and innovation, to ensure our facilities management services have a positive, sustainable impact on the people, communities and world around us.

We recognise the Environmental, Social and Governance (ESG) impact we can deliver through our partnerships, and this again will be at the heart of this year's event. Our ambition is to ensure carbon neutrality, promote solutions that support the delivery of CBRE and our clients' ESG goals, and also recognise the importance of a diverse and socially impactful supply chain.

Here's some of the initiatives we are incorporating into this year's event to support our ESG ambitions.

Carbon Neutrality

We will be working to deliver another carbon neutral event. We are encouraging all suppliers to closely consider the environmental and social impact of their exhibition stand, and any additional materials and equipment they choose to bring.

We will also be working with one of our Social Enterprise partners to offset any of the remaining carbon generated on the day, both related to the building and also attendee's travel.

Diverse Supply Chain

We're transforming our procurement practices to ensure more of our billion-pound budget is used to drive economic growth and impact in under-represented communities in the UK. We're also using our position in the market to build awareness of the importance and benefits of an inclusive supply chain in the wider B2B environment. Over 16 of our diverse suppliers will be showcasing their businesses at our event this year.

Single-Use Plastic and Paper Reduction

We are encouraging all suppliers to closely consider the environmental and social impact of their exhibition stand, and any additional materials and equipment they choose to bring.

Our ESG challenge to you....

We are asking you all, as Exhibitors, to closely consider the environmental and social impact of your exhibition stand, and any additional materials and equipment you choose to bring with you.

- Please consider sustainable and recyclable materials for your stand and any gifts/hand-outs you bring.
- We would encourage you to go 'paper free' as our event app will act as your 'company profile' and all contact information can be shared electronically via the QR code scanning.
- Consider your travel arrangements for this event.
- Ensure any waste you generate at the event is correctly disposed of, to ensure it can be effectively recycled.
